MOUNT ISA CITY COUNCIL
Australian Senate Inquiry Submission

The Australian Senate recently announced an inquiry into the operation, regulation and funding of air route service delivery to rural, regional and remote communities.

The Mount Isa City Council proposes to prepare a submission taking account of the concerns of residents and businesses regards the cost and quality of air travel services to and from Mount Isa.

To help inform its submission, the Mount Isa City Council is inviting input from local residents and businesses. Please direct stories, anecdotes, and ideas to improve Mount Isa regional air travel to Council before 31 December 2017 to email senateinquiry@mountisa.qld.gov.au.

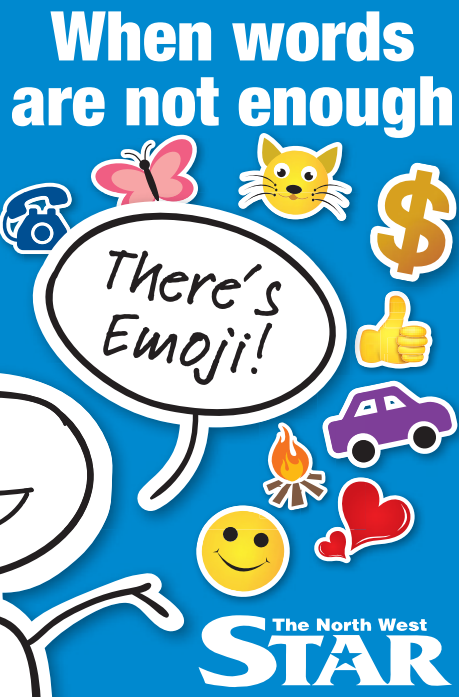

Contributions should be brief (no more than two pages in length) and be as factual as possible.

Details of the inquiry are here: https://www.aph.gov.au/Parliamentary_Business/Committees/Senate/Rural_and_Regional_Affairs_and_Transport/RegionalAirRoutes

The final Mount Isa City Council submission will be sent to the Senate Inquiry in early February 2018, and posted on the Council website.

The role will be based at Mount Isa, Queensland. The journalist will be responsible for content gathering and delivering clean and accurate copy for print and digital use. Our editorial teams strive to deliver quality content across ACM's titles, for print and digital.

As part of the editorial team, the journalist will exhibit good judgement and leadership across editorial functions, along with the highest ethical standards.

Responsibilities of the role include:

- Assisting in the execution of our agreed editorial strategy
- Being committed to the News Now strategy, ensuring content is developed in a way which builds audience engagement
- Producing photographic stills and videos as required for all media platforms
- Practicing journalistic excellence and maintaining Fairfax editorial values of credibility, accuracy, independence, high quality journalism and community empathy
- Participation in regular meetings and structured training where required
- Ensuring workplace health and safety compliance by adhering to Fairfax Media's HSE policies, guidelines and practices.

The successful applicant demonstrate the following:

- Ability to provide copy to a high standard
- Ability to prioritise work and meet deadlines
- Significant experience of working within and leading a newsroom
- High attention to detail and adaptability
- Ability to communicate with all levels of staff
- The ability to work flexible and irregular hours
- An emphasis on compliance with company and editorial department policies
- Appropriate journalistic experience, skills and knowledge
- A genuine interest in digital media, including social media
- A community focus.

To apply go to www.fairfaxmediacareers.com (Australia), job reference 31601.
